Starting Point // The Question

For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead. Acts 17:31

Message Recap

Everything that exists had a starting point...including you. You may have started on purpose. You may have started by accident (from your parent's perspective). Whatever the circumstance, you had a starting point.

Faith also has a starting point.

Main Point

The starting point for faith is a question. The question is, "who is Jesus?"

Questions for Reflection

- What did your faith look like growing up?
- What has been your experience with the Bible up to this point? How often do you read it? Have you ever read it? What keeps you from reading if you don't?
- How would you currently describe your perspective on faith?
- Did someone or something influence you in that direction? If so, who or what?
- On Sunday, Pastor Ronnie challenged everyone with three questions:
  - Who do you believe Jesus is? Why? How does that affect your faith?
  - What is the foundation of your faith?
  - If you could have one question answered in this series, what would it be?

What's Your Next Step?

The starting point for faith is not a Bible story. It's not even the Bible. The starting point for faith is a person. Jesus.

NEW for 2021: Below you will find a daily Bible reading plan. If you follow this plan everyday, you will end up reading through the entire Bible this year. If you have never done that, why not make this a goal for this year to help you grow in your faith.
